CROWDFUNDING - PRESENTATION TIPS

Before your presentation, check the following points and remember to include them in your speech:

About the section ‘Your idea & goal’:

- Clear, compelling description of what the project is
- Why it matters / what problem solves
- Who is behind the project
- What makes your project special or different
- Why supporters should choose you over similar campaigns

About the section ‘Your audience’:

- Who will care about this project?
- How will you reach them? (social channels, communities, press…)

About the section ‘Potential press connections, networks & marketing’:

- A campaign video
- Photos, prototypes, mockups, demos
- Story that connects emotionally
- Testimonials, expert endorsements, early adopters
- Founders’ backgrounds and successes
- Media or influencers mentions (if available)
- Pre-launch hype (email list, sneak peeks)
- Outreach plan

About the section ‘Legal matters (Type of crowdfunding)’:

- Type of crowdfunding chosen (reward, equity, donation and lending)
- Reasons why that type of crowdfunding has been chosen

About the section ‘Timeline’:

- Key milestones (past + future)
- Production and delivery schedule that feels realistic

About the section ‘Budget ’:

- Total amount needed
- Transparent breakdown: production, marketing, fees, shipping, etc.
- Stretch goals if applicable

About the section ‘Perks for your backers’:

- Reward tiers with clear value
- Limited or exclusively perks to drive excitement
